

FIRST CLASS
HOLIDAYS

THE ULTIMATE A-Z OF AMERICA

ALASKA

Glaciers, wildlife, mountains, national parks, stunning rugged wilderness.... and that's just the beginning. Take a cruise to explore Alaska's coastal landscapes, marine wildlife and more.

BASEBALL

Baseball is one of the most popular sports in America. Did you know Fenway Park in Boston is the oldest ballpark in Major League Baseball?

CALIFORNIA

Nicknamed the Golden State. From stunning coastline to twinkling cities: California offers a whole host of holidays from self drives to escorted touring.

DENALI NATIONAL PARK

Home to North America's tallest mountain and more than 6 million acres of wilderness. Denali National Park is one of the largest national parks in the USA.

EATING

The first thing that comes to mind when you think of 'American Cuisine' are classic dishes like burgers and hot dogs. Make sure to stop by a classic American diner on your visit.

FLORIDA

Orlando is best known for its theme parks, including the magical Walt Disney World, Universal Studios and SeaWorld.

GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE

This iconic suspension bridge spans the one-mile-wide strait connecting San Francisco Bay and the Pacific Ocean. Why not hire a bike or car and ride across the bridge?

HAWAII

Hawaii is located 2,000 miles from the mainland in the Pacific Ocean. It is the only U.S. state outside North America. Famous for its beautiful sandy beaches and delicious food.

IDAHO

Situated between Montana and Oregon, Idaho has 114 mountain ranges and 3.9 million acres of protected wilderness and outdoor recreation areas.

JAZZ MUSIC

Jazz is an American original, an innovation crafted in New Orleans, Louisiana, in the late 19th century, which changed the course of music around the world.

KENNEBUNKPORT

Kennebunkport is a coastal town in Southern Maine. It's known for its beaches, including long, sandy Goose Rocks Beach and the smaller Arundel Beach.

LAS VEGAS

Famous for its round the clock, casinos and the neon glow of the Strip. This desert metropolis is bursting with events, shows and bucket-list experiences.

MOUNT RUSHMORE

The stony faces of past presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt are carved 60ft tall in the granite of a Black Hills region of South Dakota.

NEW YORK

New York City is made up of 5 boroughs sitting where the Hudson River meets the Atlantic Ocean. Iconic sites include skyscrapers such as the Empire State Building and sprawling Central Park.

OHIO

Ohio is a state in the Midwestern United States. Did you know, Neil Armstrong, the first person to walk on the moon, was born and raised in this state?

PHOENIX

Phoenix is the capital city of Arizona. Known for its year-round sun, world-class golf resorts and warm temperatures.

QUEENS (NEW YORK)

Queens is a New York City borough on Long Island across the East River from Manhattan. The US Open Tennis tournament is held here every year.

ROCKY MOUNTAINEER

'Rockies to the Red Rocks' travels between Denver, Colorado and Moab, Utah. This two-day rail journey takes you to extraordinary landscapes, vast canyons, and inspiring deserts.

SOUTH CAROLINA

This state situated on the idyllic Atlantic coast is best known for its wide beaches, rolling mountains and stately homes. Enjoy dozens of hidden gems and nature escapes in this state.

TEXAS

So vast that is almost a country in its own right. From the classic imagery of rolling tumble weed across desert badlands to sweeping coastlines, lush mountains and sprawling prairies.

UTAH

The hiker's paradise state. It's the only place in America where four states come together. Utah has three major iconic sites: the Rocky Mountains, the Basin and Ridge Region, and the Colorado Plateau.

VIRGINIA

Steeped in history and tradition, it is the birthplace of America. Virginia's diverse beauty is not only in its scenic landscapes but also in its rich history and welcoming locals.

WASHINGTON D.C.

The U.S. capital is a city on the Potomac River. It's defined by monuments and buildings, including the Capitol, White House and Supreme Court.

XMAS IN NEW YORK

With twinkling lights, Christmas markets and the Rockefeller ice rink. Where better to get into the Christmas spirit?

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

Yosemite National Park is situated in California's Sierra Nevada mountains. It's famed for its giant, ancient sequoia trees, the vista of towering Bridalveil Fall and the granite cliffs of El Capitan and Half Dome.

ZION NATIONAL PARK

Zion National Park is a southwest Utah nature preserve distinguished by Zion Canyon's steep red cliffs.