

An aerial photograph of the Jaisalmer Fort, a massive structure built from golden sandstone. The fort features several prominent circular towers with crenellated tops. The interior of the fort is densely packed with buildings, many of which have flat roofs and are topped with water tanks. In the background, a sprawling city of similar sandstone buildings extends to the horizon under a clear sky.

FIRST CLASS
HOLIDAYS

Jaisalmer Fort